Standing Order No 02/2019

Subject: Warehousing of consignments where litigation is pending - regarding.

Attention of all Customs Officers and Customs Staff posted in ACC-Import is invited to note no. 02/2019 dated 23.01.2019 of the Commissioner of Customs, ACC Import.

2. In this regard, it has been directed to take stock of all such consignments or cases which are pending for query reply from the importer side for more than 2 days, and persuasive action should be taken in such cases to get the query replied from the importer side and assess the Bills of Entry. Further, importers should be intimated and advised to exercise the option available under Section 49 of the Custom Act, 1962 to save the demurrage and detention charges in these cases and also in cases where goods are detained for investigation purpose by any Investigative Agency for more than 2 days. The persuasive action taken to get the query replied from the importer side and the legal status of the case if any found has to be recorded online and in the file periodically and the updated file must be brought to the knowledge of the Joint Commissioner, ACC-Import on a weekly basis.

3. In cases where the importer has approached any court of law, the present status of the case should be updated online and in file in consultation with the Legal and review branch of this Commissionerate.

4. Any difficulty in the implementation of this Standing Order may be brought to the notice of the undersigned immediately.

This issues with the approval of the Commissioner of Customs, ACC (Import).
