

Report on holding of Interactive Session in Govt. Senior Secondary School, Mahipalpur, New Delhi.

As part of CBEC's outreach activities, DGTS has started its "school outreach" programme for making students aware about the indirect taxes. The young children are the future of the nation and imparting them the knowledge about the rationale of taxation and the role of taxes in the nation building helps in making them responsible citizens of the future.

The officers of Air Cargo Export Commissionerate, New Customs House, New Delhi held the "School outreach" programme at Govt. Senior Secondary School, Mahipalpur, New Delhi on 07.04.2017. The team was comprised Sh. Kulwendra Singh and Smt. Manjula Verma both Assistant Commissioner, Sh. Mahender Kapoor and Shri Bhagwan Yadav, both Superintendent and Sh. Puneet Sethi, Inspector.

The PPT received from DGTS, New Delhi was presented at Govt. Senior Secondary School, Mahipalpur, New Delhi by Sh. Bhagwan Yadav, Superintendent and Sh. Mahender Kapoor, Superintendent explained various aspects of taxation, particularly indirect tax, in an interesting manner encouraging students to ask questions. During the quiz session, conducted by Sh. Bhagwan Yadav, Superintendent, prizes were given by Smt. Manjula Verma, and Sh. Kulwendra Singh, both Assistant Commissioner to the students who replied correctly. The students of the school interacted with all the officers by fielding questions, particularly about joining Govt. services including the Customs.

The school's teaching and non-teaching staff expressed appreciation for the social work done at the school.

