At the outset, the Commissioner welcomed all the members and introduced herself, also as it was her first meeting and requested for introduction of the members present in the meeting. All the members introduced themselves.

Before proceeding to take up the Agenda points of the meeting, the Commissioner called upon the members to work together as partners as most of the issues are of mutual interest. She further added that she would ensure that all the issues raised at the forum are properly addressed and at the same time, adequate support from all the stakeholders is received.

Since no agenda points had been received from the members prior to the meeting, the Commissioner asked the members to raise any issue that is required to be discussed.

The following points were taken up in the meeting :

Point No.1 : Shri Vipin Jain of BAR(I) said that the meetings in the past have been fruitful and lot of improvements have taken place but there was still scope of improvement in various areas. He mentioned the previously raised issue of dispensing with physical documents when papers are filed/information submitted on-line. He further stated that the issue has been taken up at higher level also with the Ministries of Commerce and Finance. It has been over 15 years since the inception of the concept e-trade, e-freight, e-governance etc. As a carrier, we still need a lot to be done.

Commissioner : The matter has already been taken up at the higher level.

Point No.2 : The representative from Airlines, further raised the issue of delayed upd ation/ feeding of Inward Manifest at the Import Shed on regular basis.

Reply: Shri Rajeev Shankar, Assistant Commissioner (Import Shed) said that he would ensure that the problem is addressed on priority. Shri G. S. Karki, Additional Commissioner of Customs also emphasized that the needful be done at the earliest.

Point No.3: Shri G. S. Karki, Additional Commissioner raised the issue of difference between filing and regularization of IGMs in terms of numbers. He opined that the said difference should not be as much as it is being found to be.

Reply : The Representative of Airlines opined that one of the reasons for this may be duplicacy in filing of IGMs. Shri Rajeev Shankar, Assistant Commissioner (Import Shed) also endorsed the above view by quoting one of such instance noticed by him.
